PERUVIAN HIGHLANDS

Cusco - Lake Titicaca - Arequipa City

2 nights, 3 days

Departing from Cusco, the capital of the ancient Inca Empire, across the Altiplano towards Puno and the reflective beauty of Lake Titicaca. Travelling onwards to the natural wonder of the Colca Canyon*, the dramatic realm of the soaring condor. An unmissable visit to Sumbay Caves, home to the rock art of the first humans to live in the Peruvian highlands, before reaching the volcanic 'White City' of Arequipa.

*This excursion is not included in the journey price.

ANDEAN PLAINS & ISLANDS OF DISCOVERY

Arequipa - Lake Titicaca - Cusco

2 nights, 2 days

Departing as the sun sets on the baroque architecture of Arequipa and travelling overnight towards Lake Titicaca, the highest navigable lake in the world.

Through the deep valleys and high mountains where South American camelids graze on the wide open plains and on to the 'big sky' country of the Peruvian Altiplano.

SPIRIT OF THE WATER

Cusco - Puno

1 night, 1 day

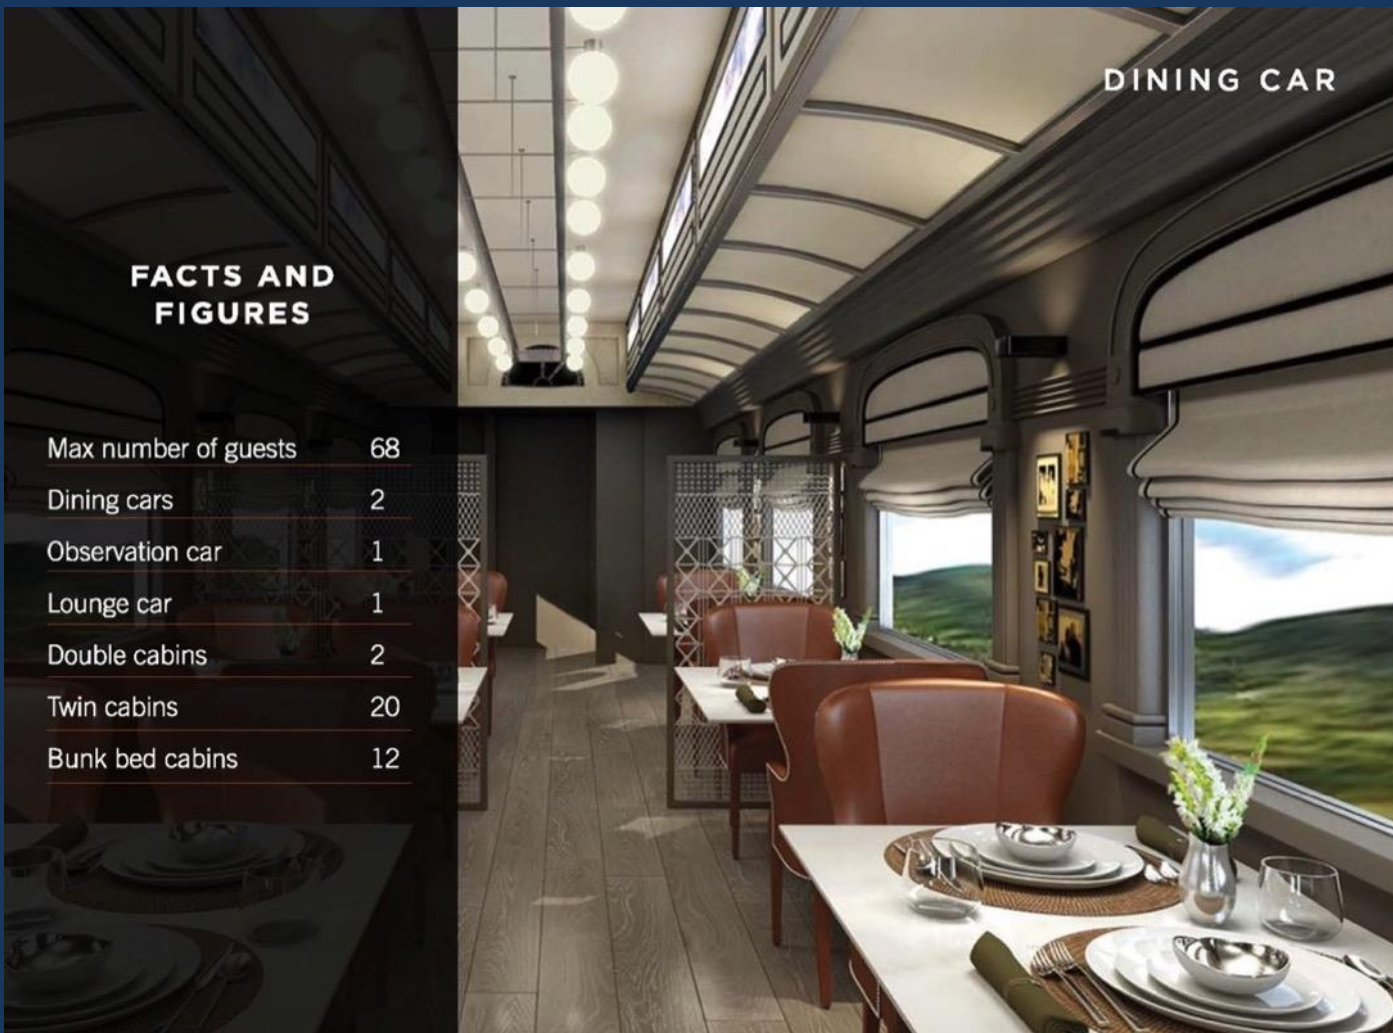

An overnight escape aboard the stylish carriages of Belmond Andean Explorer departing from Cusco, across the giant peaks and wide open spaces of the highest plains of the Andes to reach Lake Titicaca, birthplace of the Incas.

SPIRIT OF THE ANDES

Puno - Cusco

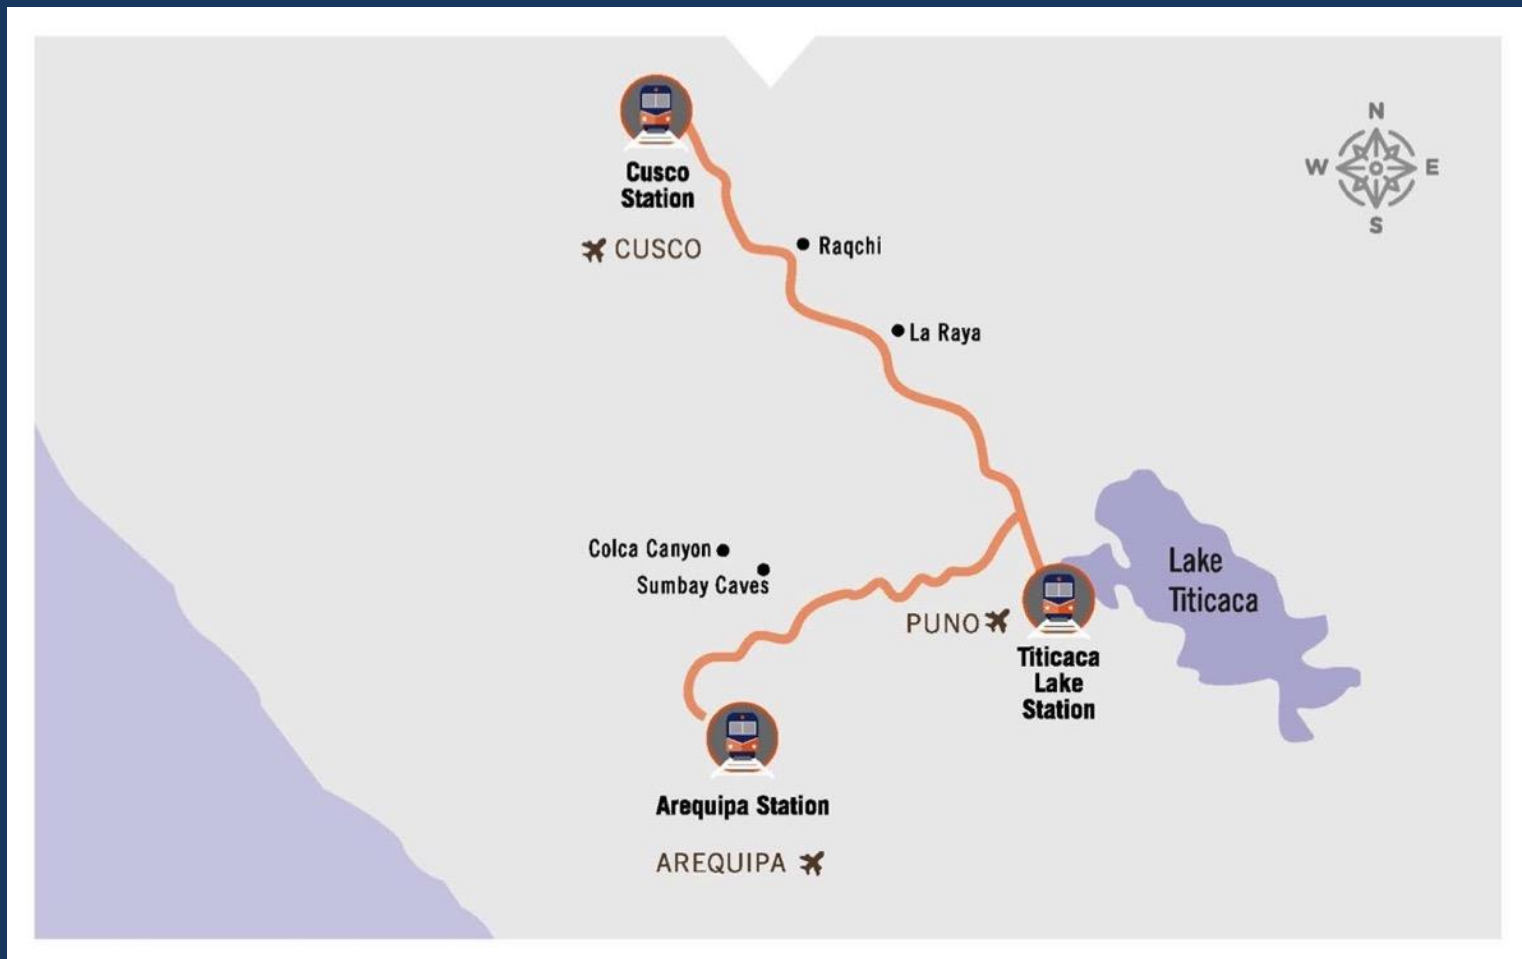

1 night, 1 day

Travelling along one of the most beautiful rail routes in the world across the highest plains of the Andes from Puno to Cusco.
